

Your One-Stop Global Energy Supply Partner

ACTOM

ENGINEERING PROJECTS AND CONTRACTS

Contracting

06 February 2024

ACTOM CONTRACTING (a Business Unit of ACTOM Engineering Projects and Contracts Division) who provides turnkey solutions for electrical power and instrumentation & control systems in the mining and manufacturing industries, as well as the public sector, has a vacancy for:

GENERAL MANAGER: CONTRACTING BUSINESS UNIT

Johannesburg

A vacancy exists in our Contracting Business Unit for a General Manager reporting to the Divisional CEO. The ideal candidate should have strong business acumen and come from an engineering background specialising in construction, this candidate should also have knowledge of contractual terms such as NEC/FIDIC Contracts and tendering processes. The main purpose of this role is to achieve business unit profit, manage employees and effectively run the business unit in meeting business unit goals as well as divisional targets.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Electrical Engineering Degree / HND Electrical Engineering

EXPERIENCE

- 10 years Senior Management experience in a same or similar role
- 10 years or more contract management experience
- Sales and proposal's experience in an Electrical Construction Industry

KEY PERFORMANCE AREAS

- Human Resource Management
- Commercial Management including claims
- Financial Management including budgets
- Technical Management
- Construction Management
- Health & Safety

APPLICATIONS

Applications accompanied by a cover letter, indicating position applied for and a current CV and certified certificates may be forwarded to the HR Manager, attention ferdi.swart@actom.co.za by no later than Friday, 16 February 2024.